

Electricity market opening on July 1st 2019 may have negative combined impact on final prices for industries and economy as a whole

There is not enough time to repair everything, though critical risks can be mitigated. Changes to the Law "On electricity market" are required.

